

The City of Everett

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Rose Margaretich was born on April 9, 1916 in Everett, Washington and turns 100 years old this Saturday; and

WHEREAS, she attended Everett Public Schools and graduated from Everett High School in 1934, was married to the late John Margaretich for 64 years and brought up their twin daughters, Jonette & Janice, in Everett - both of whom also graduated from Everett High School; and

WHEREAS, she is a warm, kind and beautiful matriarch of an extended family with seven grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and eight great-great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Rose was crowned Queen Sea-Bee in 1958 and is a lifelong resident of Everett, as are many members of her family; and

WHEREAS, Rose worked at Scott Paper, retiring after 30 years, followed by enjoying travel and fun in the sun; and

WHEREAS, her home was always filled with joy, laughter and wonderful smells from her kitchen; and

WHEREAS, Rose's energy, love of life, kindness and sense of humor have always been an inspiration to friends and family;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ray Stephanson, Mayor of the City of Everett, do hereby proclaim April 9, 2016, as in the City of Everett, in celebration of her 100th Birthday.

Rose Margaretich Day

Signed this 30th day of March, 2016.

Mayor Ray Stephanson
