

SAFESTREETS

June 23, 2016

In the News: Embedded social worker helps Everett Police deal with homeless

EVERETT – KIRO Radio reporter Kim Shepard recently spent time with Everett Police Sgt. Mike Braley and embedded social worker Kaitlyn Dowd as they talked with people at encampments in Everett and tried to connect them with housing and services.

Listen to the story and read about Shepard's experience on MyNorthwest.com.

Learn more about the Everett Safe Streets Plan.

Learn more:

For more information on the Community Streets Initiative, visit www.everettwa.gov/streetsinitiative.

For more information on the Safe Streets Plan, visit www.everettwa.gov/safestreets.

Sign up for email updates at www.everettwa.gov/notifyme.