

The City of Everett

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the passing of Marianne Skotdal is a great loss to her family and friends, Skotdal Real Estate and the Everett community; and

WHEREAS, Marianne served the Everett School District as a teacher and librarian from 1964-1972 prior to forming Skotdal Real Estate with her husband Art Skotdal; and

WHEREAS, Skotdal Real Estate has been a pinnacle in developing office, retail and apartment complexes, which have helped to shape the City of Everett's downtown core; and

WHEREAS, Marianne's creative vision and love for literature were vital in maintaining and improving the scene of downtown Everett through landscaping and iconic art installations; and

WHEREAS, Marianne always led by example to help make her community a better, more beautiful place; and

WHEREAS, Marianne was loved and respected by her family, friends and community; and

WHEREAS, Marianne's many contributions to those around her will live on;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ray Stephanson, Mayor of the City of Everett, do hereby proclaim December 14, 2016, as

Marianne Skotdal Day

in the City of Everett, in celebration and remembrance of her life.

Signed this 12th day of December, 2016.
