

Summary:

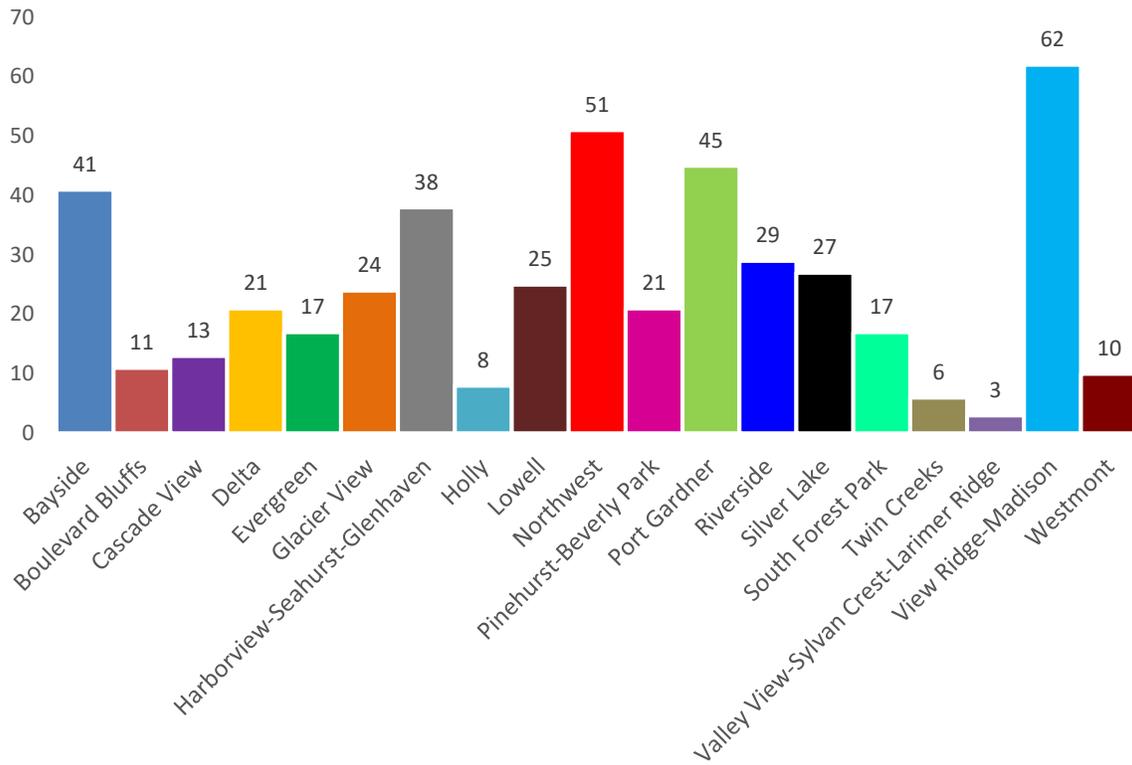

- Approximately 71 people attended the informational meetings (people who signed in)
 - 15 people attended multiple meetings, 87 attendees total
 - April 17 – 30
 - April 19 – 22
 - April 25 – 10
 - April 30 – 25
 - No requests for translators
- 483 responded to the survey
- 480 responded to the English survey, 3 responded to the Spanish survey
- Top three trending responses are summarized for each question in which people selected “other”.

Question 1. Are you an Everett Resident?

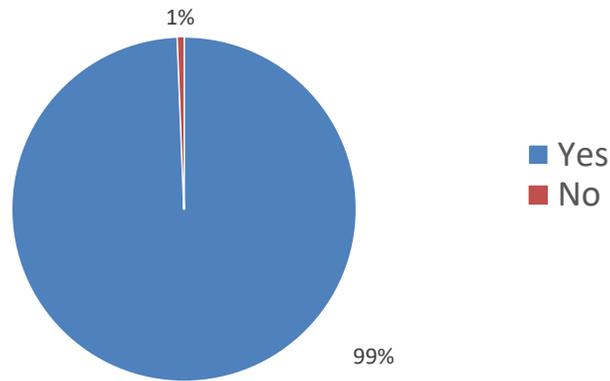

Q1. Are you an Everett resident?
Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Yes	96.86%	463
No	3.14%	15
	Answered	478
	Skipped	5

Question 2. What neighborhood do you live in? View map if unsure.

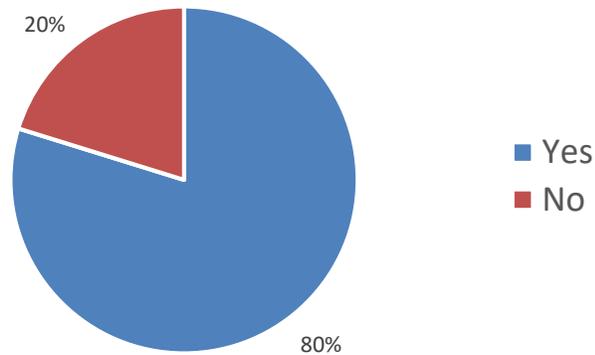

Q2. What neighborhood do you live in?
Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Bayside	8.74%	41
Boulevard Bluffs	2.35%	11
Cascade View	2.77%	13
Delta	4.48%	21
Evergreen	3.62%	17
Glacier View	5.12%	24
Harborview-Seahurst-Glenhaven	8.10%	38
Holly	1.71%	8
Lowell	5.33%	25
Northwest	10.87%	51
Pinehurst-Beverly Park	4.48%	21
Port Gardner	9.59%	45
Riverside	6.18%	29
Silver Lake	5.76%	27
South Forest Park	3.62%	17
Twin Creeks	1.28%	6
Valley View-Sylvan Crest-Larimer Ridge	0.64%	3
View Ridge-Madison	13.22%	62
Westmont	2.13%	10
	Answered	469
	Skipped	14

Question 3. Are you registered to vote?

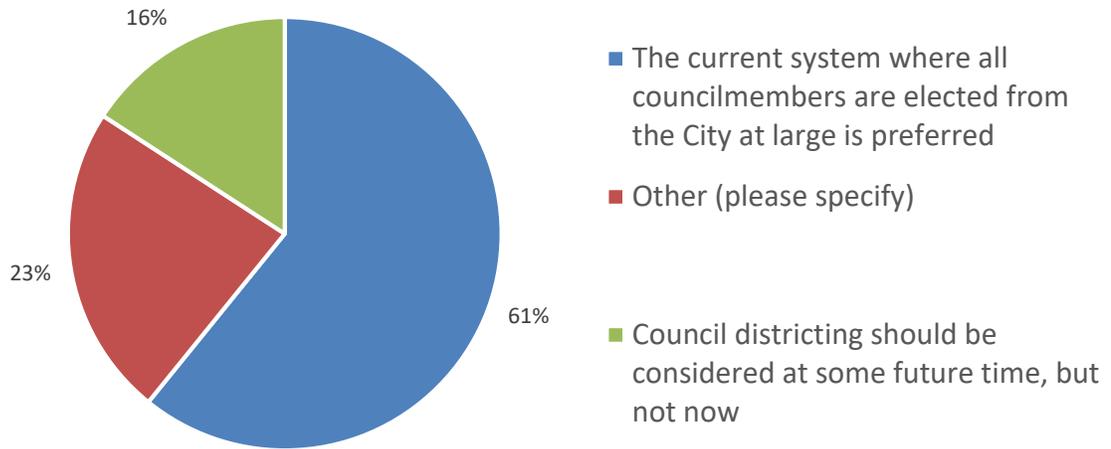

Q3. Are you registered to vote?
Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Yes	99.38%	480
No	0.62%	3
	Answered	483
	Skipped	0

Question 4. Should Everett move to a district representation system?

Q4. Should Everett move to a district representation system?
Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Yes	79.79%	383
No	20.21%	97
	Answered	480
	Skipped	3

Question 5. (If you selected "no" to the previous question) I selected "no" to the previous question because:

Q5. (If you selected "no" to the previous question) I selected "no" to the previous question because:

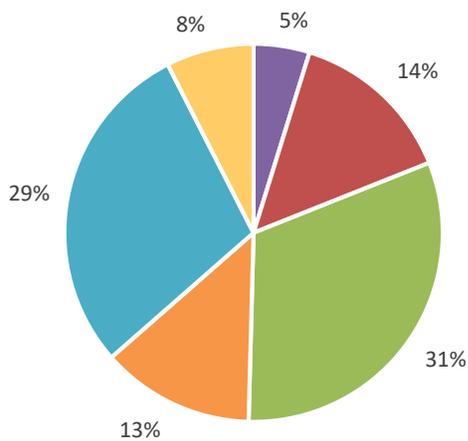

Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
The current system where all councilmembers are elected from the City at large is preferred	60.83%	73
Council districting should be considered at some future time, but not now	15.83%	19
Other (please specify)	23.33%	28
	Answered	120
	Skipped	363

Top "other" responses:

19 responded with "N/A" or with a response in favor of council districts

Other responses vary

Question 6. Which districting model do you prefer?

- 1 councilmember at large (representing the whole city), 2 councilmembers each from 3 districts
- 1 councilmember at large (representing the whole city), 6 councilmembers representing 6 districts
- 2 councilmembers at large (representing the whole city), 5 councilmembers representing 5 districts
- 3 councilmembers at large, 4 councilmembers representing 4 districts
- 7 councilmembers representing 7 districts (no at-large councilmembers)
- Other (please specify)

Q6. Which districting model do you prefer?

Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
7 councilmembers representing 7 districts (no at-large councilmembers)	28.96%	139
1 councilmember at large (representing the whole city), 6 councilmembers representing 6 districts	14.17%	68
1 councilmember at large (representing the whole city), 2 councilmembers each from 3 districts	4.79%	23
2 councilmembers at large (representing the whole city), 5 councilmembers representing 5 districts	31.46%	151
3 councilmembers at large, 4 councilmembers representing 4 districts	13.13%	63
Other (please specify)	7.50%	36
	Answered	480
	Skipped	3

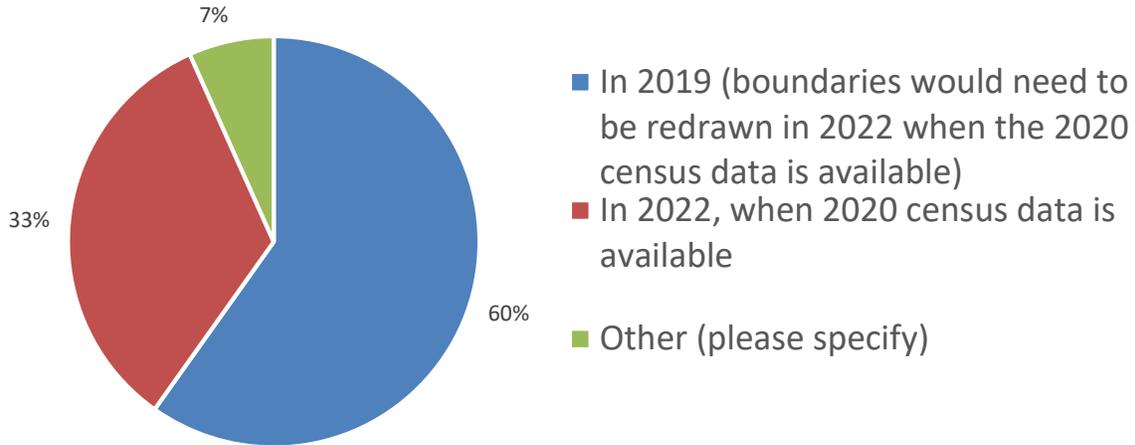

Top 3 "other" responses:

22 responded in favor of no districts, or all 7 at large

4 responded in favor of 4 at large (representing the whole city), 3 councilmembers representing 3 districts

2 responded in favor of 1 councilmember at large (representing the whole city), 2 councilmembers elected from each of three districts

Question7. State law requires that districts be revised at least every 10 years to reflect the most recent federal census data. The next federal census will be in 2020, and the data should be available by April 2022. When should the district boundaries be drawn for the first time to establish districts?

Q7. State law requires that districts be revised at least every 10 years to reflect the most recent federal census data. The next federal census will be in 2020, and the data should be available by April 2022. When should the district boundaries be drawn for the first time to establish districts?

Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
In 2019 (boundaries would need to be redrawn in 2022 when the 2020 census data is available)	59.83%	286
In 2022, when 2020 census data is available	33.47%	160
Other (please specify)	6.69%	32
	Answered	478
	Skipped	5

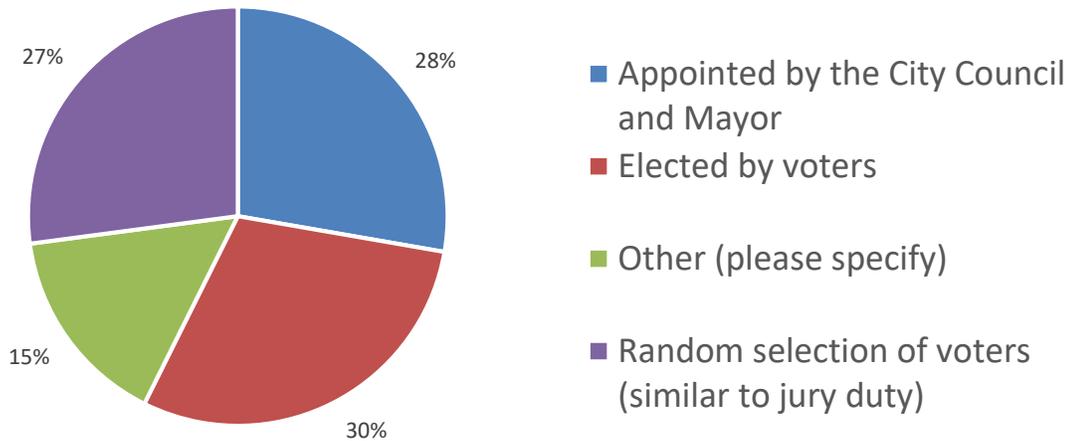

Top 3 "other" responses:

13 responded with "never", "none" or "no districting"

5 responded in favor of boundaries proposed by local community group

4 responded with "now" or as soon as possible

Question 8. It is recommended that cities use an independent commission to draw district boundaries. How should the independent commission be formed?

Q8. It is recommended that cities use an independent commission to draw district boundaries. How should the independent commission be formed?

Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Appointed by the City Council and Mayor	27.73%	132
Elected by voters	29.62%	141
Random selection of voters (similar to jury duty)	27.10%	129
Other (please specify)	15.55%	74
	Answered	476
	Skipped	7

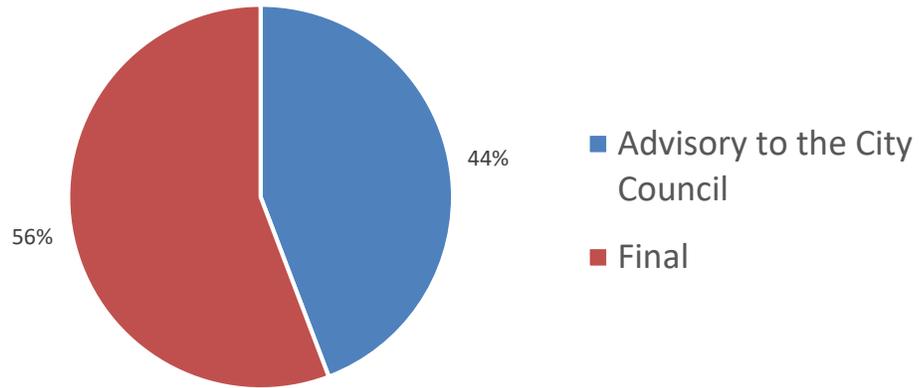

Top 3 "other" responses:

14 responded in favor of a combination of 2 or more of the above options

9 responded in favor of boundaries proposed by local community group

8 responded with "none", "never" or keep it as-is

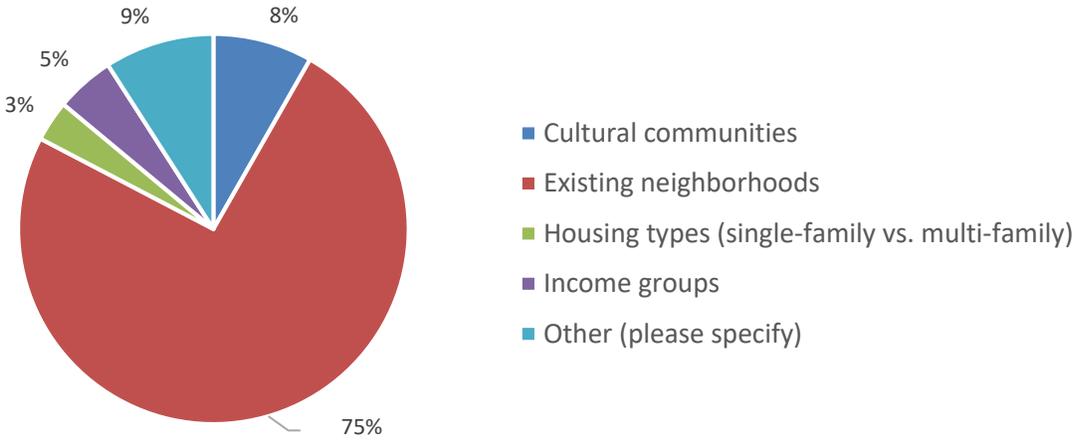

Question 9. Should an independent commission’s boundary decisions be final or advisory (meaning, the boundaries established by the independent commission would need to be approved by the City Council before becoming final)?

Q9. Should an independent commission’s boundary decisions be final or advisory (meaning, the boundaries established by the independent commission would need to be approved by the City Council before becoming final)?

Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Final	55.77%	261
Advisory to the City Council	44.23%	207
	Answered	468
	Skipped	15

Question 10. By state law, districts must “preserve existing communities of related and mutual interest.” Several potential examples of “communities” that could be considered are identified. Of these, which one should the independent commission prioritize when drawing district boundaries?

Q10. By state law, districts must “preserve existing communities of related and mutual interest.” Several potential examples of “communities” that could be considered are identified. Of these, which one should the independent commission prioritize when drawing district boundaries?

Answer Choices	Response Percent	Responses
Existing neighborhoods	74.42%	352
Income groups	4.86%	23
Housing types (single-family vs. multi-family)	3.38%	16
Cultural communities	8.25%	39
Other (please specify)	9.09%	43
	Answered	473
	Skipped	10

Top 3 "other" responses:

- 11 responded in favor of following geographic boundaries
- 9 responded in favor of a combination of two or more options above
- 5 responded in favor of the boundaries proposed by local community group