

EVERETT POLICE DEPARTMENT

ATTEMPT TO ID SUSPECT

MEDIA RELEASE

Feb. 14, 2019

Case # 2019-8438

At about 5:45 pm on Jan. 22, 2019, officers responded to a fatality collision at Pacific Ave and Colby Ave. A postal truck had struck and killed a pedestrian in the roadway. Following the collision, an unidentified male stripped off the Lakers jersey he was wearing, assaulted the postal worker, and stole his keys. The male left the jersey behind.

A check of the surveillance video at the nearby 7-Eleven (1611 Pacific Ave) showed the possible suspect in the store just prior to the incident. Everett Police and United States Postal Service Inspectors are attempting to identify the male in the video.

Anyone who can identify the male or has information about this collision is asked to call the Everett Police Department TIP LINE at (425) 257-8450 or Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound at 1-800-222-TIPS.
