(Original Release: November 4, 2016)

EVERETT – The Everett Police Department is asking the public to help identify the suspect(s) of three south Everett commercial robberies over the past two weeks.

Detectives with the Major Crimes Unit are investigating three robberies that occurred on October 24th, October 27th, and November 1st during business hours where the suspect(s) implied having a gun. Lovers (112 SE Everett Mall Way) was robbed twice and Papa Murphy's Pizza (11014 19th Ave SE) once.

It is unknown if the same person is responsible for all three robberies, but the suspect in each instance is described as male, wearing all black clothing, gloves, and a ski mask who ran from the business.

There are no pictures or surveillance video to provide at this time.

Anyone with information about these robberies is asked to call the Everett Police Department TIP LINE at (425) 257-8450.
