Dance a memory into your daughter's heart Register for Everett's annual Daddy Daughter Dance

EVERETT – Create sweet memories that will warm her heart for a lifetime at Everett Parks & Community Services' annual Valentine-themed Daddy Daughter Dance, Friday, Feb. 10, or Saturday, Feb. 11, 6:30-8 p.m., at Forest Park's Floral Hall, 802 E. Mukilteo Blvd. Fathers (or father figures) and daughters of all ages are invited to attend this popular event.

Pick a night and enjoy spending time together away from the digital interruptions and busy schedules of daily life. Dress fancy and slide, shuffle and twirl around the polished dance floor to tunes played by DJ PJ Parsons, including your requests.

“We've had families with multiple generations come together,” says Jan Tanner, Everett Parks and Recreation program supervisor. “It's wonderful to see the dads twirling with their daughters and just opening up and having fun.”

This is Everett's sixth daddy-daughter dance. Last year, 295 dads and daughters registered for the dance. The event includes dancing, light refreshments and commemorative pictures.

Registration is required and costs $29 per father-daughter pair and $6 for each additional child. Register in person at the Recreation Office in Forest Park, over the phone at 425-257-8300, or online: signmeup.everettwa.gov. For more information, call Everett Parks & Recreation at 425-257-8300 ext. 2.
