Parking law overview

This overview is not inclusive of all parking laws.

See the Everett Municipal Code (EMC 46.28—Parking) for the laws that govern parking within the city: everettwa.gov/code

Proper parking

- In accordance with regulating signs, curb and street markings.
- In the same direction as traffic flow. All parking is parallel unless posted or marked.
- Front-to-curb (face in) when angle parking unless directed by signs.
- Within 12-inches of a curb or edge of the roadway.

Improper parking

- Where regulating signs, curb or street markings prohibit.
- Longer than permitted by posted signs.
- In alleys (paved/gravel areas do not always define the right of way).
- Vehicle with expired registration, license tabs or improperly displayed license plates.
- Parked longer than 72 continuous hours are considered abandoned and may be cited and/or impounded.
- Reparking anywhere within the central business district is unlawful, except for the purpose of immediate shopping or for securing services.

- Reparked within the same block, without moving through or across a street intersection, shall be deemed continuously parked.
- On or within 20 feet of a crosswalk (marked or unmarked), unless permitted by signs or street markings.
- Blocking or within 5 feet of a driveway, alley entrance or cross street.
- Within 30 feet of a stop sign unless permitted by signs or street markings.
- In a fire lane or within 15 feet of a fire hydrant.
- Vehicles parked for sale. “For sale” signs are prohibited.
- For the primary purpose of washing, greasing or repairing.
- Inoperable vehicles on any city street, alley or right of way.
- In a marked disabled parking space without a valid disabled placard or license plate. Disabled individual must be using vehicle.
- A motor home in a residential area for more than 24 hours.
- Vehicles in residential areas that exceed 16,000 pounds gross vehicle weight, or over 20 feet long, or over 8 feet wide.
- Semitrucks in residential zones or detached trailers on any city street.
- On sidewalks or planting strips.
- Blocking or hindering access to a mail receptacle.

Radar trailer

If you have noticed a high level of speeding in your area, you can request a radar trailer to be set up. Contact the Sector Administrative Sergeant at:

North precinct 425.257.8474
South precinct 425.257.7520
