

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oct. 14, 2020

CONTACT

Rachael Doniger, public information officer, 425-754-0443

Male injured in house fire last night

Male receives minor burns to his hands in house fire.

(Updated Release: Oct. 14, 2020 @ 2:40 p.m.)

The adult male who had burns to his hands was transferred to Harborview Medical Center for treatment and care. There is no further information on his medical status. Fire is still under investigation.

###

EVERETT, WA – Shortly before 9:30 p.m. last night, a neighbor called 9-1-1 to report a house fire in the 6100 block of Commercial Avenue. Firefighters arrived to find a fully involved house fire.

A man, who is a resident of the home, received minor burns to his hands and was transported to an area hospital. There is no further information on his condition at the time of this news release. No firefighters were injured.

There are two residents who live in the home, no assistance was requested to help them relocate. A dog was located and safely reunited with its owner.

Initial information indicates the fire may have been started by a candle, however, the fire is still under investigations.

###